Second and subsequent places will be awarded one point less than the previous place multiplied by the race weighting.

This changes A4.1 RRS

- 8.2 Each race will be weighted and categorised as follows:

Leg	WS OSR Category	Weighting
Plymouth – Falmouth	4	1.5
Falmouth – Fowey	4	1.0
Fowey – Plymouth	4	1.0

- 8.3 A separate prize will be awarded for either single-handed or double-handed boats where there are 5 or more boats qualifying in the category.

9. BERTHING

The OA will make the respective harbour authorities / marinas at Falmouth & Fowey aware of the event and the number of yachts expected for berthing. Finding a berth / mooring is each yacht's responsibility.

10. RADIO COMMUNICATION

- 10.1 Except in an emergency, a boat shall neither make radio transmissions while racing nor receive radio communications not available to all boats. This restriction also applies to mobile telephones. Race Control will operate on Channel 77 in each port.

11. PRIZES

- 11.1 Prizes will be given as follows:
- 11.2 A 'leg' prize will be awarded to the winners of each class for the Plymouth to Falmouth and Falmouth to Fowey legs of the Series. Additional prizes will be awarded depending on the number of boats entered in each class, For 5-9 boats a second prize will be given, for 10-14 boats a third prize and so on. The Overall Triangle Series prizes for each class will be awarded and presented at the RWYC annual prize-giving.
- 11.3 Subject to sufficient entries, prizes may also be awarded on the same basis as described in NoR 11.2. to single-handed and two-handed entries that have declared their intention to race as such beforehand.

12 SELF STEERING GEAR

- 12.1 The use of self-steering devices is permitted.

13. RISK STATEMENT

13.1 RRS 4 states: “The responsibility for a boat’s decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone.”

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- (i) they are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
- (ii) they are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
- (iii) they accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
- (iv) their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
- (v) the provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
- (vi) the provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;
- (vii) it is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held at the venue;
- (viii) they are responsible for ensuring that their boat is equipped and seaworthy so as to be able to face extremes of weather; that there is a crew sufficient in number, experience and fitness to withstand such weather; and that the safety equipment is properly maintained, stowed and in date and is familiar to the crew];
- (ix) their boat is adequately insured.

14. INSURANCE

Each participating yacht shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of £2,000,000 or the foreign equivalent for the duration of the race or series.
